To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as an official invitation for the above-named individual to attend the Interdisciplinary Meeting on Antimicrobial Resistance and Innovation (IMARI), organized by ASM and the Infectious Diseases Society of America (IDSA). The conference will be held January 27–29, 2027, in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA.

IMARI 2027 will convene leading scientists, innovators, and cross-sector experts dedicated to advancing solutions in the global effort against antimicrobial resistance. The program will span the full innovation pipeline — from uncovering emerging resistance mechanisms to developing next-generation therapeutics and translating discoveries into clinical applications. Participation in this meeting will contribute to the attendee's professional development and foster international collaboration and knowledge exchange in this critical field.

Please note that all travel, accommodation, registration, and visa-related expenses are the responsibility of the attendee. This letter is issued solely for the purposes of supporting the attendee's visa application to travel to the United States and attend the IMARI 2027 conference.

Sincerely,

Cesar A. Arias, M.D., Ph.D., M.S.
IMARI Program Committee Co-Chair
